

Tibco ESB Developer – Remote

Responsibilities

The solutions you create will bridge classic systems with transformational on-premise, and cloud-based solutions

- As a Senior Engineer, you will work side by side with other developers and Product teams, designing, building, and implementing integrations utilizing Tibco ESB
- Partner with Product teams to define technical solutions to business problems
- Design and develop integrations and applications utilizing Tibco ESB technology
- Follow and practice continuous integration and DevOps, including automated testing
- Provide robust monitoring and alerting
- Create technical and support artifacts for applications and integrations

Qualifications

Qualifications

- Strong teamwork skills, ability to learn quickly, excellent written and spoken communication required
- 8+ years of hands-on ESB integration application development experience required
- Working knowledge of programming languages/platforms using the Tibco suite of ESB products, required

Hiring organization

Eplus Inc

Employment Type

Contractor

Job Location

Richmond, USA

Remote work possible

Date posted

February 13, 2022

- Experience integrating on-premise and cloud-based technologies required
- Experience working with version control systems (SVN, Github, etc.), build management and CI/CD tools (TeamCity, Jenkins, Maven, etc.), and monitoring tools
- Knowledge of REST APIs, SOAP, and JMS
- Knowledge of JSON and XML concepts, frameworks and standards
- Tibco Business Works (BW) 5.x required
- Tibco Enterprise Messaging System (EMS) 8.x required
- Hands on experience in developing and consuming REST endpoints in Tibco BW 5.x
- Familiarity with security patterns for rest endpoints